

Alexandria Gazette

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 24.

LOCAL MATTERS

For this district stationary temperature, fair weather, preceded on the coast by local rains, light to fresh easterly winds.

UNIVERSITY LOCAL EXAMINATIONS.—The results of the University local examinations held here last month were received from Col. Yeoble, chairman of the committee of the faculty yesterday, by Capt. Kemper, secretary of the local committee, and are as follows, the asterisk denoting "honor class" in the study, after which it is placed:

In the junior examinations: Joseph L. Sanford, Fairfax county, Va., passed in mathematics, history and geography; English, and geology; R. Keith Compton, jr., Charles county, Md., in mathematics, history and geography, English and geology.

John T. Watkins, Alexandria, Va., in mathematics, history and geography and geology. O. Otton Brown, jr., Washington, D. C., in mathematics, history and geography, and geology.

Urban S. Lambert, Alexandria, Va., in mathematics, and history and geography. William D. Appich, Alexandria, Va., in English and history and geography. Edward R. Dunn, Alexandria, Va., in mathematics.

In the senior examinations, Orlando C. Ketcham, jr., Washington, D. C., passed in history and geography and geology. Messrs. Ketcham, Sanford, Compton, Brown, Appich and Dunn are cadets at St. John's Academy, and Messrs. Watkins and Lambert students at Washington school.

MARRIAGES.—Mr. C. A. Woolfolk, of the Richmond Critic, and Mrs. Eliza F. Burks, daughter of the late John J. Lloyd, were married at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. George Uhler, in this city yesterday evening by Rev. Mr. Suter. After the ceremony, which was quietly performed in the presence of a few relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Woolfolk took the train for the North. After their bridal tour they will go to Cleveland, O., their future residence. In speaking of the wedding the Richmond Dispatch says: "Mr. Woolfolk, who is well known here, where he has always lived, has for several years been a promising figure in journalistic circles, recently editing the Critic, a society Monday-morning paper published here. Mr. Woolfolk is very popular, and Mrs. Burks made many friends during her stay in Richmond this winter."

Mr. William Edelin and Miss Eva Manning, both of Prince George's county, Md., were married at Accokeek church by Rev. Mr. Huntley yesterday evening. The bride and groom are both well known in this city.

THE ELECTION to fill the offices of Commonwealth's Attorney, Commissioner of Revenue, City Treasurer, Clerk of Court, City Sergeant, Magistrate, &c., is being held today. The inclemency of the weather has had a dampening effect upon the ardor of many of the voters, and but a light vote has been polled. This has been decidedly a cold-water election—the bar-rooms were closed, the city was drenched by Jupiter Pluvius, there was no opposition to the democratic candidates, no "incentives" in the shape of liquors were disbursed, and every thing combined to make it a flat day for those who look forward to such an occasion with the same longing as an Hibernian for a Doneybrook fair. At 4 o'clock the vote in the several wards was much smaller than usual at that hour. This morning a report was started that the republicans had put a ticket in the field and were about to capture the election, but it was unfounded.

GRADING CONTRACT.—Messrs. Breen and Fealy, of this city, who have the contract to grade the Ranoke and Southern road from the North Carolina line to Martinsville, are now doing fine and systematic work. The Martinsville Herald says: "The four and four-fourths miles from Ridgeway to the State line shows evidence of lively operations. The camp of the convicts is well located and the working forces are divided into squads of convenient size and are well organized. For the three miles between the creek and Smith river heavy work will be required, as will be the case from the river to Martinsville, and the progress will be slow, though it seems probable that the contractors will push through to Martinsville by Christmas."

SPECIAL SERVICE DISCONTINUED.—Special service at the following postoffices in Virginia, besides at a number of others, has been discontinued, to take effect June 30, and will be supplied, commencing July 1, by regular contract service: Alexandria county, Baldwin; Caroline county, Balty; Rappahannock county, Hewlin and Kelly's Ford; Spotsylvania county, Hick's Store and Massaponox; Prince William county, Minnieville; Fairfax county, Stoneleigh; Clarke county, Stone Bridge; Warren county, Sentinel; Shenandoah county, Topknot; Louisa county, Walton's Store, and Orange county, Watkins.

RAILROAD MEETING.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Falls Church and Potomac Railroad Company on Monday, the following were elected directors: R. Morrison, S. Duryea, Prof. N. F. Graham, E. J. Northrop, O. E. Hine, W. W. Douglas, and E. A. Greenough. A meeting of the board of directors followed, when R. Morrison was elected president; Prof. Graham, vice president; S. Duryea, secretary, and E. A. Greenough, treasurer. The road when built will give railroad connection between Falls Church and Washington in 5 1/2 miles' ride.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Arthur Gregory, of this city, who recently went to Memphis, Tenn., has gone to Eagle Pass, Tex., where he has received an appointment as voucher clerk in the purchasing agent's office of the Mexican International Railway. Mr. Richard Latham is quite ill at her home on lower Prince street. Representative Jacob Yost, of the Staunton district, was in the city yesterday, it is said, on political business. He had an interview with Mr. L. W. Corbet.

THE RECENT COLLISION.—It is said that the damage resulting from the railroad collision in this city yesterday morning will amount to between $15,000 and $20,000. Conductor Bennett, of this city, who was badly bruised, is recovering and it is understood that fireman Farch, who had his foot crushed, and brakeman Parker, who was injured by being thrown from the train to the ground, are also doing as well as could be expected. The two latter are in Washington.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 8 o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of the window curtains, carpet, &c., in the club room over the Alexandria Real Estate office, on Fairfax street, near King. The cause of the fire is not known, but the flames were extinguished by the janitor and officer Sherwood without the aid of the fire department which, however, was promptly on the ground. The loss was slight.

Homes and Investments in the West; write to Secretary Board of Trade, Garden City, Kansas, for free circulars.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy with rain about 12 o'clock. There were two lodgers and one prisoner at the station house. The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of Wm. Coukin arrested by officer Henry for being drunk on the street. He was discharged.

Lee Camp Distribution.—Persons holding the following tickets are requested to call at the Opera House on Friday, between the hours of 11 and 1, and take away their prizes: Nos. 408, 343, 225, 263, 267, 421, 493, 302, 457, 109, 39, 109, 336, 107, 123, 255, 454, 495, 410, 431, 448, 411, 409, 428, 484, 485, 445, 405, 436, 493, 432, 244, 253, 274, 499, 47, 157, 124, 348, 402, 407, 339, 406, 113, 169, 340, 476, 341, 31, 165, 262, 488, 175, 252, 449, 444, 440, 416, 208, 412, 337, 409, 110, 50, 427, 441, 500, 172, 360, 422, 420, 433, 326, 897, 173, 156, 417, 346, 401, 335, 373, 264, 256, 26, 367, 375, 174.

Its Delicacy of Flavor.—And the efficacy of its action have rendered the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, immensely popular. It cleanses and tones up the clogged and feverish system, and dispels Headaches, Colds, and Fevers. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Bro.

Most delightful smoke. The "Old Virginia Cheroot" 5 for 10 cents. Ask your dealer for them. Dealers supplied by Chas. King & Son, wholesale agents, Alexandria, Va.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—To whom it may concern:—Please take notice that application will be made at the June term of the County Court of Alexandria county for the appointment of a commission of condemnation to appraise the value of lands lying along the line of the old narrow gauge railroad between the new iron bridge at Georgetown and the town of Falls Church, Va.

Mr. W. P. Graves who yesterday evening attempted to lead a bull back into an inclosure from which it had been turned, was attacked by the animal and tossed over a ditch. Before Mr. G. could be injured the bull was driven off by some bystanders, but not until it had leaped the ditch and attempted to gore him.

This is the 27th anniversary of the occupation of this city by the Federal troops and the killing of Ellsworth and Jackson at the Marshall House. How many of our citizens have passed away since that memorable day and to how many does it seem but as yesterday.

It is learned that Mr. H. C. Winship, who has a coal agency in Georgetown, will at an early day build a coal wharf with chutes &c., at Shepherd's on the opposite side of the river. Mr. J. T. Rogers has the contract for building the wharf.

The day has been cloudy and gloomy with almost a constant downpour of rain, which considerably interfered with all out of door business. A picnic nine from this city will play a game of baseball with the High School nine, on the grounds of the latter to-morrow.

Mrs. Sarah Stearns, a well known resident of this city, is seriously ill at her home on lower Prince street. This being election day all the bar rooms in the city were closed—or had their front doors closed, at least. The rain it raineth every day.
